

FESTIVALS, PACS & GALAS

A horn band that draws — and an education program that comes with it

The show opens and closes with Chicago's greatest hits. In between, audiences get the best of every legendary horn band — Earth Wind & Fire, Tower of Power, Blood Sweat & Tears, Stevie Wonder — played live by a full professional brass section led by internationally acclaimed saxophonist Hal Melia. All-ages, and a dance floor guaranteed.

WHY PRESENTERS PROGRAM US

- ✓ It draws. Series directors book us back season after season, and tell us the audience asks for it.
- ✓ It's a real brass section. Eight players on stage, not tracks — the thing your audience came to hear.
- ✓ All-ages programming. Works for a family concert series, a subscription night, or a black-tie gala.
- ✓ Standing ovations, on the record. See the quotes below — those are presenters, not fans.
- ✓ Formats that fit your bill. A 90-minute festival set for shared bills and concert series, played straight through, or a full two-hour show in two sets with an intermission.
- ✓ Self-contained. Stage plot and all riders published and ready to advance; works with house production.
- ✓ Reach. OH, IN, KY, IL and WV stages already played — and available beyond the region with travel covered.

Pair the concert with a horn section clinic

We bring the whole horn section into a local school band program for the day — breakouts, a combined section rehearsal, and a closing performance for families. Many arts grants require a public performance and an education activity; a clinic day satisfies both, and opens an outreach budget alongside your talent budget. WHAT PRESENTERS SAY

"While we present 25–30 acts every summer, BTB has become one of my personal favorites, and is an audience favorite as well!"

SPRINGFIELD ARTS COUNCIL

"Generally we don't have dancers in the crowd but Thursday night was definitely an exception. You guys had those people moving!"

RIVER'S EDGE AMPHITHEATER CONCERT SERIES

"Nothing gets a crowd jumping like horn-driven Rock 'n' Roll and R&B, which makes Brass Tracks Band the perfect band..."
